Directions:

1. Twice a day, use kinesiology to check your energetic connections in both directions.
2. If there is any broken link, make a correction by sending a burst of energy from your third eye or with two fingers of your dominant hand to a picture of your spine. You can either visualize your spine in front of you or use a picture of your spine to send the correction.

Discussion: In order to receive accurate intuitive information, it is necessary to get the ego mind out of the way and connect all parts of yourself to God.
This is a simple method of checking to make sure that all parts of you are connected to Source and of setting your intention to correct any links that are broken.
Our job as healers is to show up and get our egos out of the way, allowing God Source to work through us.
